Oceanfront and great for the whole family. The original home was built in 1934. This rambling, wonderful old home has been completely renovated. There's a great cottage for kids to call their own or keep it as the adult hideaway.

From the oceanfront yard, you'll enjoy views from Flat Island to the Mokulua Islands. You can launch kayaks, stand up paddleboards, even longboards if you're willing to paddle over to the islands should an east swell rise. Learning how to paddle Hawaiian outrigger canoes, snorkeling with turtles, hiking, everything is near this charming home.

The neighborhood sits on a 2.8 mile loop that's perfect for short walks and jogs, there's a short hike to historic World War II pillboxes, and Kailua town is nearby with local coffee shops, boutiques, restaurants, entertainment, and Whole Foods among other shops.
