Modern luxury masterfully blended with a sense of old Hawaii! This meticulously maintained and beautifully furnished oceanfront estate is the epitome of elegance, sophistication and simple luxury. Beyond the custom gated entry lies a tropical modern oasis that offers an enriching, enlightening and rewarding lifestyle experience to the most discriminating travelers. This experience is about a rediscovery of senses dulled by the incessant demands of life, a desire to escape and relax in surroundings that satisfy and please on all levels; an encounter with nature at its finest and a world apart from everyday life.

Set on 1.62 oceanfront acres, this unique property boasts 350 feet of beach front, with ocean views from every room. Three anchialine ponds on the property provide a natural irrigation to many mature trees such as coconuts, Lahala, and rare Loulou palms that form a beachside oasis.

The 4 bedrooms and 4-1/2 baths custom estate is a perfect getaway for couples and small families seeking respite and luxury in a resort-like private setting. The tropical pod style house features a private guest wing with 2 oceanfront suites with its own wet bar, washer and dryer, while conveniently connected to the main pod via a covered bridge. The main pod features 2 additional oceanfront en-suites (including a luxury master suite) and a great living space.
